

You Can Make a Difference!

Every dollar makes a difference! You can help those living with autism today maximize their quality of life in a positive and measurable way. The Autism Society of Greater Akron is committed to providing support, service, and guidance to those impacted by autism in our community. This includes family members, educators, and other professionals who support those with autism.

You tax deductible donation stays in the Greater Akron area to serve the communities in Medina, Portage, Stark, Summit and Wayne counties.
