SUPPLIES NEEDED

Pink craft paper
Scissors
Tissue box
Double-sided tape
Chenille stems
Fast-setting glue
Pink and black pom-poms
1.25-ounce clear plastic cups
2-inch wide round or oval box or jar lid
Pink paint

INSTRUCTIONS

1. Wrap a 5-x-20-inch piece of pink craft paper around tissue box and secure with double-sided tape. Cut a separate piece for the top about 1/8 inch wider on each side; cut slit in center and tape to top of box.
2. Paint your box or jar lid pink, and attach black pom-poms as eyes. To make the tail, glue a pink chenille stem to the back center of the box and spiral by wrapping it around your finger.
3. Cut two 2-inch equilateral triangles from pink paper as ears. Paint centers with a darker pink paint and let dry. Make a crease 1/2-inch from the bottom and glue to box.
4. Fill four clear plastic cups with pink pom-poms and glue to the four bottom corners of the box.
